EDITOR'S NOTES:

I recently was able to purchase some old issues of the Ragpicker from PMCM member O.L. Sabetto. Paging through them was enjoyable and informative as well. I particularly enjoyed seeing a succession of editors asking for contributions from the membership relative to articles for publication. One went so far as to say, I don't know when the next issue will be printed, as I don't have anything to print. If it wasn't for the efforts of Frank Clark our magazine would have been considerably thinner...thanks, Frank. My message is, if you've been thinking about putting an article together, do it now...we can all benefit from the combined knowledge of our members. I've also noted a few "timeless" articles in old Ragpickers and I will be contacting the authors to see if they mind seeing these pieces run again, and even if they'd like to update them.

50 years ago in Numismatics:

I've been working on my library of late, and have managed to pick up some old Numismatic Scrapbooks and Numismatists. It's fascinating leafing through these publications and noting the names and prices and issues of the day...bear with me as I enlighten our younger members and, hopefully bring a wave of nostalgia to our Senior membership.

In early 1942 Numismatic Scrapbooks a 1938 Proof Set was advertised at $18.00 (actually, quite a lot for a 4 year old set in those days). Wm. H. Dillisten had an article on "The People's Bank of Patterson, N.J." It was illustrated with a 7 and 8 dollar bill from that institution. Joseph Coffey wrote "An early American Printer" (Isaac Collins). The article is illustrated with a 15 Shilling "leaf note". The lead article for February (2 months after Pearl Harbor) was the "Nickelless nickel, 1/2 silver, 1/2 copper per Federal legislation: Title xiii-Coinage of 5 cent pieces, section 1301. State Bank Notes, by John A. Muscala was offered by Wayne Raymond for $2. "Not a list made up from hearsay, but based on the principal existing collections." In the Numismatist of Jan-Mar a "Federal Coin Cabinet" was offered for $16. "Last call until after the duration" It was pictured, and described as a steel cabinet 27 1/2" high x 16" wide, and 13 1/2" deep. The Detroit Coin Co. (Harold L. Bowen Mgr.) had an ad for early Mich. State Bank Notes. They had just purchased a large collection...address 818 Lawrence, Det., MI. Other advertisers were, of course, B. Max Mehl, New Netherlands, A. Kosoff, etc. In the Jan issue an article by John A. Muscalus dealt with a paper he presented to the ANA convention at Philadelphia in 1941..."State Bank Notes of Special Interest". The Detroit Coin Club held its 420th meeting 2/5/42. 22 members were in attendance (The columns on local club meeting surprised me...as I joined the ANA in the middle 80's, I was unaware that a lot of club news was featured in older issues of the Numismatist...I think it was a great idea...something I'd like to see them get back to, a little less advertising and a little more of interest to the collector). Plans were being made for the annual banquet and Dr. Renz gave an address on Admiral Emo of Venice and displayed a gold medal struck to honor him. A bolt out of the blue for me was the fact that F.M. Church was appointed by the club president to serve on the banquet committee. I have a 1940 Wayne Raymond Standard Catalog of Paper Money in my library, ex libris F.M. Church. It's certainly fun going through these old books and publications...look for more "50 years ago" in future Ragpickers.....Is there someone out there with our magazine back 25 years that would like to do a companion column...25 years ago in the Ragpicker????.

COMING EVENTS: Central States, Minneapolis Convention Center, May 1-3, 1992. For info write: 1992 CSNS Convention, PO Box 18053, Minn., MN 55418.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Michigan's wintertime has really been easy for me this year. Mainly because I haven't been home and have spent most of it in the land of sunshine. Went to Vegas for New Years on a free trip that even paid my airfare. Then went to Phoenix to play golf for 4 days and then to Florida for the FUN show. That is always a great show with 450 to 500 dealers just Wheelin and a Dealin!!

I picked up a White Pigeon Obsolete note and also Alpha and Lake Linden Nationals to add to my collection. For four days I scoured the floor looking for "sleepers" or even "wide-awakers" notes. I also attended two auctions...Currency Auctions of Amercia and Bowers and Marena. Both were well attended and had spirited bidding. Prices on all paper money were up and and the same was true for choice coins. Only the generic coins were on an even keel and even they have flattened out and started to rise a little.

Upon returning home I used my free airline tickets (from getting bumped off the Phoenix flight home) to go to L.A. Cal. to attend the Superior auction and go to the Long Beach Show. Now you can understand why I didn't mind the Michigan wintertime this year, HA HA!!

You would never know there was a recession going on by looking at the prices realized at the Superior sale of the Roger Cohen Half-Cents and Large Cents. Those Copper coin lovers are as bad or maybe even worse than us guys with our paper money collections; and if you collect paper money and half-cents like I do then you're really going to be broke as well as crazy.

The Long Beach Show was mainly for action amongst the dealers and not too well attended by collectors. This was probably due to the fact that most of the collectors expended themselves at previous auctions, as well as the gloom in the economic overcast that is still lingering. I also noticed that the Baseball Card section at Long Beach seems to have added a few more dealers. I expected their bubble to burst before this. Now, however, I think they're here to stay as the kids really love it. That's a big reason why Coin and Paper Money collecting is having such a hard time attracting young people and new collectors.

I sent a resolution to the ANA in support of Detroit having the ANA Convention in 1994. I received a nice letter of appreciation from Robert Leurser, Executive Director of the ANA, thanking the PMCM for their support. There has been a movement by a few dealers to have the Detroit ANA site changed or they would boycott the show. Hopefully this will be resolved by the time you receive your Ragpicker in the mail. We want the 1994 ANA in Detroit as our club and MSNS are great supporters of the ANA and feel we can put on a nice show here.

The Spring show for MSNS is to be held in Lansing this year so I hope to see many of you there. Exhibitors for PMCM will all get some books. Best of Show will win some cash...so put an exhibit together and be a winner.

Regards, Dr. Wallace Lee
President, PMCM.

OUR COVER THIS MONTH. This months cover is illustrated by a new 1990 series $100 bill, complete with counterfeit prevention features. The bill has micro-printing around Ben Franklin's portrait and a security thread running north to south on the west side of the bill from the 100's in the corners (approximately). hold the bill up to the light and you'll see micro-printing within the thread. You'll need a magnifying glass to see it, however. This note, a star note was found by PMCM member Ron Swenson, who got it from the M&I bank in Wausau, Wis. Ron reported it to Bank Note Reporter and it was the first star note reported to their office.

Another Great Mid-west show is coming up in Milwaukee, Wis, the 32nd NOW (Numismatists of Wisconsin) Convention will be held at the Mecca Convention Center, Milwaukee, wis. April 3-5, 1992. If you're interested in exhibiting, contact Francis F. Wilford, PO Box 26366, Wauwatosa, WI 53226. Deadline 3/15/92. This is always a great show with a good supply of Paper Money.

When it comes to Show's, however, how can you top MEMPHIS. This is the REEEEEEAly BIG SHEW, as Ed Sullivan would have said. The 16th Annual Memphis Show will be held at the Convention Center, June 19-21. For information on exhibiting contact Past PMCM President, Martin Delger at 9677 Paw Paw Lake Drive, Mattawan, MI 49071. I'm already preparing for Memphis and my wife says if she hears Memphis one more time she'll scream.

The AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION will hold its National Convention August 12-16, 1992 in Orlando, Florida, and will feature the Spider Press and a collection of rare currency. The final Intaglio print for the year will be sold starting the first day of the show.

The Department of the Treasury has announced that "Security enhanced 50's" will be delivered shortly. Currently 50's of the New York Federal Reserve District are in the printing process. The other 11 Districts will be produced in 1992 (this press release is dated 12/30/91). Look for the security thread and Microprinting of the words "United States of America" around Grant's portrait. Editors note: ask your local bank if you can have a spare info packet dealing with these new bills. I understand 250,000,000 were mailed out to banks all over the country. It's a neat item.

Thanks to Doug Murray, especially this issue, as there was a change in format from the BEP. There were also a few confusion areas where the BEP reported in sheets rather than in notes. Doug kindly sorted this out so we could give you the best available information.

In 1992 the BEP is celebrating the Quintennial of Columbus' historic voyage by issuing a distinctive selection of souvenir cards featuring rare currency notes and postage stamps. A distinctive background for the intaglio imprint of intricately engraved currency notes and stamps has been created for this year's souvenir cards. Each will contain a design derived from material created for the World's Columbian Exposition Diploma, an engraved print which was presented to international exhibitors at the Columbian Exposition (Chicago, Illinois in 1893).

MATCHING CHARTER AND SERIAL NUMBERS
BY FRANK CLARK #2104

At the 1991 International Paper Money Show I was with several collectors. We were beginning to go out for dinner when one of them asked the question, "Does anybody have a National with matching Charter and Serial numbers?" I said that I did and he said I should share it with the "RAGPICKER" audience. Here it is. The note is a Third Charter Red Seal on the Fort Worth National Bank. The Matching charter number and Serial number is "3131". It is the only Red Seal in my collection. It is also one of my most favorite notes. The note is on a "common" Bank, but it is a rare type and better yet it has the matching Charter and serial numbers.

THE FARMERS NATIONAL BANK OF HILLSBORO, TEXAS

By FRANK CLARK #2104

The Farmers National Bank of Hillsboro was chartered on 7/27/1887 with a capital of $50,000. It received charter # 3762 from the National Government.

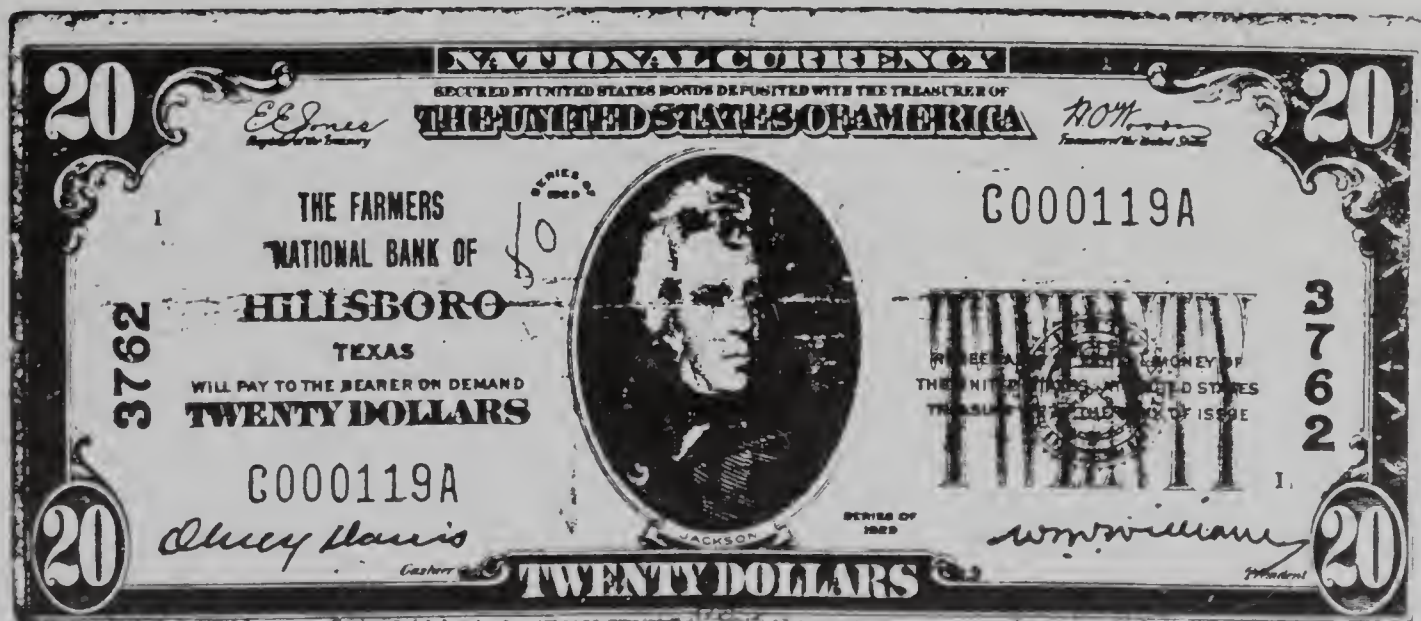

The bank's building was completed in 1887. It was constructed of sun-dried brick. In 1912 this brick was replaced by kiln-dried brick. It is one of the oldest bank buildings in Hill County and is on the Southwest corner of the Town Square.

The Farmers National was placed in voluntary liquidation on 4/24/1931. It's capital had grown to $100,000 and it was succeeded by the Colonial Trust Co. of Hillsboro. Later, Colonial Trust added a Greek Revival front, with columns, to the building. Colonial Trust is still located there today.

During the National Bank Note issuing period the Farmers National issued $10 and $20 Second Charter Brown Backs, $10 and $20 Third Charter Red Seals, Date Backs and Plain Backs. In small size notes the bank issued $10 and $20 Type I nationals. The total amount issued was $1,445,980. When the bank closed it had $12,500 in Large size outstanding and $74,520 outstanding in Small size.
